

Reading 3

- Read the text.

- Chose the sentence that is true for each of the cases according to the article.

1. Sense of smell and death .
 - a. All cases of Parkinson diseases have the smell of failure.
 - b. This phenomenon may affect healthy and sick old people.
2. A bad mood and greater productivity .
 - a. People who are usually angry improve productivity when they are in a bad mood.
 - b. People who are usually happy improve productivity when they are in a bad mood.
3. Low intelligence and pseudo-profound statements .
 - a. People who believed in acupuncture are likely to believe in fact-based topics.
 - b. Profound statements are clichés some people believe.
4. Bottle-feeding and left-handedness .
 - a. Babies who started bottle-feeding at 6 months turned out to be left-handed.
 - b. Babies who started bottle-feeding at 9 months turned out to be left-handed.
5. Beards and punches .
 - a. Men with beards are better fighters than those without beards.
 - b. The experiment was on non-human heads.

ANSWERS

RESTART

